Luther 500 - The Musical Legacy

Led by Andy Watts of The Carnival Band
 A Saturday workshop exploring the musical heritage of Martin Luther and the Reformation. Also West Gallery Music and similar styles from Britain, Europe and America, as performed today by Maddy Prior and the Carnival Band.

For singers and instrumentalists (number of places limited to 50)
At St. Saviour's Parish Church, Retford
Saturday 14th October 2017 10.00am to 5.00pm
(including lunch)

The workshop lead into a Luther 500 Anniversary Celebration Service at 7.00pm to which everyone is invited

Andy Watts will provide music including some of the arrangements used by Maddy Prior and the Carnival Band in their recordings 'Sing Lustily and With Good Courage' and 'Paradise Found'. He will coach singers and instrumentalists in a selection of hymns and sacred music from the 16th to the 19th century. The music will then be used in the service that evening. Previous workshops have proved a huge hit with participants and congregation alike, as new life is breathed into these wonderful tunes.

Voices

There will be singing in parts so high, medium and low voices will be needed, but if you are not used to part-singing or reading music you will be welcome to sing the tune at your pitch as a 'doubling' or 'congregational' line. Young people welcome but most children under the age of 12 would probably find the level of concentration required too tiring.

Instruments

The music is not technically difficult, but, because we aim to cover a good number of pieces, instrumentalists should be able to read music fairly well. If you are at Grade 5 level or above you should manage comfortably.

The following instruments are suitable:

Strings – violin, 'cello, bass (violas will read 2nd violin part in treble clef)

Woodwind – flute, oboe, bassoon, clarinet (please state whether Bb or A)

Brass – trombone, tuba (please state Eb or Bb), and occasionally trumpet and horn (You are of course welcome to sing if brass is not required.)

Percussion, guitar, keyboard – used sparingly: be prepared to take turns and to sing as well.

Other – contact us and we'll try and include a part for you!

Other equipment

Please bring a music stand and a pencil

Food

Lunch will be provided, plus all drinks during the day.

You will be able to either pop home, go into town or get a take away between the workshop & service.
